The property, which is currently designed as an office, is located on the third floor in a magnificent listed building. The property underwent a complete renovation a few years ago, with new doors and windows, door at the entrance with extra safe technic, new cladding, electricity and heating. On this floor there is only two apartments, so intimacy is a given.

The interior façade in the stairwell will soon be renovated, bringing further added value to the property.

Nearest parking is available underground, the parking lot under Szabadság Square. Parliament, Batthyányi Eternal Torch, American Embassy are a few minutes walk from this elegant street.

It can be viewed both on weekends and on weekdays.
